SPECIAL AIR FORCE TRAINING PROGRAM

The next training course in clandestine operations for Air Force officers will begin on 3 October. The first two weeks of the course will be handled by the Air Force instructor cadre who were students of the first course. A testing program will be conducted by OTR instructors. On 17 October the regular six-week training program will begin. This period will be similar to the first program given last May. Primary emphasis will be placed on the collection of air intelligence in denied areas. Major Crum has replaced Lt. Colonel Giblo as Chief of the USAF Special Activities Squad.
